

Personalisation

Surviving and Thriving in the Voluntary and Community Sector

What opportunities does it provide for community & voluntary organisations and for the infrastructure organisations that support them?

What are the potential barriers and what support is needed to overcome them?

Wednesday 31st March 2010

9:30am Registration
for 10.00am start - 3:30pm

The Source, Meadowhall
Sheffield, S9 1EA

What are the implications of personalisation for the voluntary and community sector? And what support will organisations need not only to survive but to thrive in the new world? An event for infrastructure organisations and the voluntary and community sector organisations they support in South Yorkshire and Wakefield.

Katy Wing, NACVA will provide a national perspective
Barbara Booton, South Yorkshire Centre for Inclusive Living will provide the local picture.

Free use of the gym and sauna for everyone that attends the full day event - if you want to use the facilities please contact the Source on 0114 2635600

To book your FREE place, complete and return booking form by 22nd March or contact Carron Charlesworth Voluntary Action Sheffield on 0114 253 6623 or 253 6647

